

Degrees of Seriousness - not an exhaustive list

The examples of the offences detailed below indicate the minimum 'seriousness' of the offence and should be used as guidance only. Ultimately, the decision as to how serious the offence is will be made by the Discipline Committee

Minor	More Serious	Very Serious	Very Very Serious
	Academic Offences
Late or not done homework	Plagiarism	Plagiarism of coursework
Class work not done		Cheating in school exams
Use of the school shop interfering with academic progress	Continued academic offences can lead to school detentions, one-day suspensions, contracts of agreement to comply with our academic expectations - ie. doing homework and class work - and ultimately expulsion
	Behavioural Offences
Chewing gum	Being in an out of bounds area	Smoking	Possession or use of a weapon
Mobile phone on in class	Deliberate damage to property	Possession or use of alcohol	Possession or use of drugs
Disruptive behaviour	Leaving school without permission	Physical abuse or violent behaviour (& Bullying)	Aggressive or threatening behaviour towards BISI personnel
Public display of affection	Verbal abuse or swearing	Rudeness to Staff
Locker visits during lessons	Not completing school daily or weekly Report for Dean of students	Disobeying or ignoring the instructions of a member of staff
Breach of uniform code
Not equipped for class
Running inside buildings			