Dear parents,

End of Year Message

It seems no time at all since I arrived in Istanbul to take up my new position as Director of Secondary here at BISI, and now here I am, sat in my office with all the students and most of the staff gone off for their well-deserved summer holidays.

This has been a very busy year for the school and there have been a lot of changes in the way we have done things. The introduction of special subject related weeks into the Secondary Curriculum, a change to the way we organise school trips with a larger emphasis on overseas trips, the acquisition of COBIS Accreditation and the setting out on the long road to CIS Accreditation, the increases in subject choices in both IGCSE and the IBDP, the continuing increase in student numbers in Secondary and many more changes have all brought their own problems and their own solutions.

Throughout all the changes and throughout the school year I feel that I have enjoyed the support of my staff, of the Board of Governors and of parents in most of my endeavours. And without that support, many of the changes would have been impossible to introduce. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the whole BISI community for the support you have given both to me and to the school and to ask you to keep supporting us as we strive to make BISI even better than it already is.

It now remains only for me to wish you all a very happy summer holiday, I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible at the various events that we will be inviting you to in the new academic year.

Yours faithfully,

William Bradley
