9 February 2011

Dear Parents,

Student Safety

The following measures will come into effect as of Monday 14th February for the security of your children:

- Any students leaving school during school hours must have a permission slip to leave.
- Students may leave school at 15:35. Students will not be re-admitted once they have left the school premises.
- Students who catch the bus should not leave the school grounds as
 - They will not be re-admitted
 - AZAL will not pick them up from the road side.
- Students attending clubs will be expected to attend their chosen club and will be allowed off the campus at 16:30. Students registered for clubs but not attending can expect to be disbarred from the club.
- Students catching buses will go home on the same bus number that they arrive to school on.
- If you wish to occasionally change this routine, we will need your written permission. Please note that communications by telephone or email will not be acceptable.

Yours faithfully,

BISI Communications
