What is the PTA?

The PTA is our parent teacher association with a mission to bond the school community and to monitor, review and improve our school with regard to the curriculum, campus and social activities of the school.

Who can join?

Any parent or teacher can join, everyone is invited!

How does it work?

Currently operates in 4 committees reporting to the PTA Board:

- Curriculum – looks after the academic issues
- Campus – targets to improve our campus
- Social - organizes social and fund raising activities
- Communication – manages the communication needs of the PTA

What are the benefits?

A better school for your kids, lots of friends and a lot of fun for you!

How much time will this take?

All depends on you.. You can be a PTA member, a part-time member, help with subcommittees or just help us occasionally!

How can I join?

Turn up at the annual general meeting: 24th at Zeck Coop
