13th June 2016

Dear Parents,

Congratulations to all our Year 11 students who have successfully taken their IGCSE examinations during the last six weeks and to our Year 10 students who have completed the first year of their IGCSE programme.

School Text Books: Students in Year 10 will keep the textbooks they have received for subjects so that they can review the work over the summer break and continue with their studies next year. Should your child have lost a school text book, it will need to be replaced at the library. Year 11 must return all textbooks by June 10th as should leaving students in year 10.
